NOTICES

Upcoming Services

Sunday 28 October, 10am. The St Hilda's community joins us for a special Eucharist.

Sunday 4 November, 7.00pm. Requiem Eucharist for All Souls Day.

Sunday 11 November, 9.30am. There will be one morning service combining the 8am and 10am congregations to commemorate Remembrance Day as well as 100 years since the current Cathedral building was first used for a service (although the building was not consecrated until February 1919). The earlier start time will allow people to join the 11am civic commemoration at the cenotaph should they wish to do so.

Names of the Departed for All Souls Requiem Mass

If you have a family member or friend who has died in the last year that you would like remembered in the list of the departed at the Requiem Eucharist for All Souls Day please let Bruce Aitken or Rev'd Barbara Dineen know, or email the office, office@stpauls.net.nz. Alternatively you can pass the name of the person to one of the Vergers.

Cathedral Interest Group: Event Invitation

The Cathedral Interest Group went into abeyance a couple of years ago. As a means of perhaps getting it going again, John Burton has offered to give an illustrated talk entitled 'Discovering history in ancient churches in the UK and Ireland'. Did you know that John Still 1509-1607, one-time Bishop of Bath and Wells, wrote a famous drinking song? Or that Dean Jonathon Swift gave a sermon on 'Sleeping in Church' in St Patrick's Cathedral Dublin? Or that the tiny church of St Eata's in Atcham, near Shrewsbury, contains both a memorial to John's great (X 13) grandfather and also one to a Spitfire pilot born in Dunedin who died when his plane crashed in WW2? And there's much, much more!

Please accept this as an invitation to join Chris and John at 7pm on Tuesday 23rd October at 50 Highgate, Belleknowes. Please contact one of us on 4777371 (or john.burton@actrix.co.nz) in advance so we can get an idea of numbers.

Anglican Family Care Street Appeal/Request for Volunteers

The team at Anglican Family Care are busy planning our first ever street appeal! The appeal will take place on Friday, 16th November from noon until 5pm and will raise awareness and help fund services for Otago children living in difficult circumstances, including family violence, abuse, neglect, addiction, mental health issues and isolation.

We are looking for volunteers to help on the day - if you have an hour or two to spare we'd love to hear from you. Please call 477 0801 or email lucy@familycare.org.nz to find out more.

Anglican Family Care is looking for a volunteer to help keep our resource room organised and tidy. The volunteer would need to come in to our office at 266 Hanover St, Dunedin, once a week for an hour or two to keep books and other resources for families sorted and tidy. They may also identify gaps in resources that could to be filled through donations or fundraising. For more details, please contact Lucy on 474 7415 or lucy@familycare.org.nz

Centennial Calendars

The 2019 Cathedral Centennial Calendars put together by Ruth Empson and Stella Cullington are available for purchase from the Cathedral shop. The A4 calendar retails at $20; the A5 calendar at $15. Be in quick!

Choir Recess

The choir will be on holiday from Thursday 11 October, returning on Thursday 25 October. During this period services will continue at their usual times unless otherwise specified.

Pewsheets notices

If you have a notice that you would like included in the pewsheets, please ensure that it reaches the Cathedral Office by 9am on a Wednesday.
